

Diversity of Buddhist Movements in the Post-War Era

Jonathan S. Watts
Keio University
Tokyo, Japan

Alternative (Buddhist) Development

Sri Lanka: Sarvodaya Shramadana Movement 1960s →

A.T. Ariyaratne

Alternative (Buddhist) Development

Thai Development Monks

1970s →

Luang Pau Nan

Luang Pau Khamkian

← Phra Phaisan Visalo

Alternative (Buddhist) Development

❖ Gross National Happiness 1979 →
King Jigme Singye Wangchuck

❖ The Center for Bhutan Studies
Dasho Karma Ura

Cultural & Human Rights Movements

Gender Discrimination & Buddhist Feminism

Theravada Nuns Ordination Movement 1988 →

Cultural & Human Rights Movements

Gay Marriage & LGBT+ in Buddhism

Cultural & Human Rights Movements

Alternative Education 1990s →

Spirit in Education Movement (SEM) & INEB Institute

Ajahn Sulak Sivaraksa

Cultural & Human Rights Movements

Alternative Education 2000s →

Nagaloka Center

&

Deer Park Institute

Environmental Movements

Deep Ecology and Environmental Movements

1970s →

Joanna Macy (USA)

Environmental Movements

Thai Buddhist Environmental Movement 1990s →

Phra Prachak

Tree Ordination

Environmental Movements

Anti-Nuclear and Clean Energy
1990s →
International Eco-Temple
Movement 2015 →

Hospice and Spiritual Care for the Dying and Bereaved

❖ Zen Hospice Project (USA)

1987 →

❖ Being with Dying Training Program(USA) (Joan Halifax)

1994 →

❖ Rigpa Spiritual Care Program (Europe & USA) (Sogyal Rinpoche) 1993 →

Hospice and Spiritual Care for the Dying and Bereaved

Dhammarak Niwet Hospice Clinical Buddhist Chaplains

Thailand 1992 →

Taiwan 1998 →

Suicide Prevention & Grief Care

Association of Priests Grappling with the Suicide Problem (Japan) 2007 →

Youth and Spiritual Leadership Development

INEB “Young Bodhisattva” Program
International Buddhist Leadership Training for Spiritual Resurgence and Social Innovation (since 2002)

